To Live, To Love, To Learn

Children in Need—Friday 17th November 2017

This year the children have decided to raise money by:

Paying £1 to wear PJs to school.

Entering Pensilva's Got Talent—50p per entry.

Have a go at the Penalty Shootout—50p for 5 balls.

Prizes and certificates to finalists and winners.

Year 6 French Workshop

The French video the year 6 class will be working from is on YouTube. Please search—Nathalie Bonneau, 'Quand Je Vais A L'ecole'.

Spectacular Science Show

The hotly anticipated Spectacular Science Show (postponed from 30th October) will now take place in the school hall on Tuesday 21st November 2017 at 2pm.

Fantastic Football Result

The football team won the tournament at St Neot last Friday.

They won 5-0 against St Neot. Goal scorers Henry, Samuel, Cian and Archie x2.

Won 1-0 against St Germans. Goal scorer George. This was a tough match!

Won 4-0 against Harrowbarrow. Goal scorers Mark (from his goal!) and Samuel x 3.

They were brilliant and played so well as a team! The referee was an Argyle coach who was very impressed by them!

Great news for Pensilva!!!

PSA news

Warleggan Class have been time travelling!

The children took part in a prehistoric workshop on Tuesday and on Wednesday, spent the morning at The Hurlers finding out more about how people lived in the Bronze Age. This was linked to their current topic on Journeys. All had a fantastic time!

Playground to 5k run

21 took part tonight with the most adults ever!!
Thanks to all that turned up and all are welcome
whatever ability.

Mary's Meals Success

In total, 104 bags were sent into this great charity. Thank you to everyone who donated!
