

Statutory Spellings in Sentences Year 5/6 2

The words below are synonyms for the words that are missing from the sentences. Use these clues to fill the spaces.

grateful      schedule      extreme      talking      distant      chance
flashes      interest      supply      extremely determined      everyone

It is nice to stop and _____ the flowers on a sunny spring morning.

The _____ all helped clean the field after the fun day.

His _____ got the better of him and he slowly pulled back the paper on his birthday gift.

Susie was _____ to find a gap in the crowd so she could see the performance.

A first aid kit is enough to _____ a first aider to deal with minor accidents.

Tom did _____ when his grandma asked how he hurt his knee.

Samia was born in Britain but she lives in a _____ country.

English is a _____ spoken by people in England and many other countries.

The storm had loud thunder and _____ with quick bright flashes.

At Christmas, children are given the _____ to go see Santa Claus.

The audience were given a _____ containing the evening's events.

Statutory Spellings in Sentences Year 5/6 2

The words below are synonyms for the words that are missing from the sentences. Use these clues to fill the spaces.

grateful	schedule	extreme	talking	distant	chance
flashes	interest	supply	extremely	determined	everyone

It is nice to stop and appreciate the flowers on a sunny spring morning.

The community all helped clean the field after the fun day.

His curiosity got the better of him and he slowly pulled back the paper on his birthday gift.

Susie was desperate to find a gap in the crowd so she could see the performance.

A first aid kit is enough to equip a first aider to deal with minor accidents.

Tom did exaggerate when his grandma asked how he hurt his knee.

Samia was born in Britain but she lives in a foreign country.

English is a language spoken by people in England and many other countries.

The storm had loud thunder and lightning with quick bright flashes.

At Christmas, children are given the opportunity to go see Santa Claus.

The audience were given a programme containing the evening's events.