

Continue the Learning Journey

- Take a virtual tour of Alcatraz Island using Google Earth. Click on the stick figure icon and select any location highlighted in blue to enter “Street View.” (Note: You can download Google Earth online, or use Google Earth Web using the Google Chrome browser.)
- Using details from the article, write a short story about the escape from Alcatraz from the point of view of Frank Morris or one of the Anglin brothers. Be sure to include their fate—that is, whether they survived or not.

Writing Task for Thursday and Friday.

Now You are one of the famous prisoners and you are going to write a detailed description of your escape or attempted escape. Remember to use figurative language and bring in all the senses. Your piece will need a clear beginning, middle and end.

Consider:

- Paragraphing
- Different examples of punctuation
- Starting each sentence differently
- Try not to overuse or repeat words
- Use a range of sentence types, long and short dramatic ones.
- Metaphors, similes, personification, hyperboles,